PATCH NOTES

Characters

1. Added new Soldier and Revenant specialisations.

The Revenant was once a powerful Daeva. But while on a mission, he was overpowered and taken captive by the Tiamat Legion.

Tiamat tore off his wings and brainwashed him, turning him into one of her Thunderstream legionaries. He lost all memory of his days as a Daeva, and became a nameless number in the ranks.

While tracking down the runaway Sienola, Tiamat's control over him weakened, and his memories started to seep back.

He returned to Atreia and became a Daeva once again. But he ended up defying the orders of his commander, who appeared to have forgotten the sacrifice of his companions who had been captured at the same time. From that moment on, he called himself the Revenant, and chose to forge his own path with similarly minded Daevas.

- Soldiers can now change to the Revenant class through special campaigns.
- The Revenant is a medium-ranged class, equipped with leather armour and the new "chainblades" weapon.

PATCH NOTES

Telos

1. Added the new Telos area.

When test subject No. 707 fled Tiamat's clutches and escaped from Tempus, she accidentally created a space with the power of Siel's Relic that became known as Telos. Telos is a place where the memories which Tiamat tried to erase have become intertwined with No. 707's memories of her time as a Daeva.

The brainwashed Soldiers who became Tiamat's subjects followed No. 707 in their Dredgion and entered Telos.

- When you create a Soldier, you start in Telos.
- Soldiers and Revenants cannot complete certain campaigns from Ishalgen, Altgard, Poeta and Verteron.
- Only Soldiers and Revenants can enter Telos.

Instances

1. Added the Sunken Telos instance.

Telos should have disappeared after Sienola fled, but for whatever reason, this did not
